AText [32/64bit]

aText is a small tool that gives you the power to create text snippets from the short and long texts you're using, and reuse them within any app you want. Thousands of people on the web are using the aText app for iOS: and millions of them are using it for Windows, Mac, and Android as well. It is a tool that is in serious need of an update, but instead of that, a new update is in development. The next aText update will bring the ability to connect to over 40 different cloud services (file storage, calendars, etc.) and create text snippets from directly within those apps. For now, it has support for iCloud, Dropbox and Google Drive. Features: – You can create and insert snippets from any text in any application – Snippets are saved in your aText account – Syncs snippets between all devices you use aText on – Insert snippets to others apps like Apple Pages, Outlook, Gmail, etc. and more – You can edit them directly, or send them to the aText server for cleanup – Full word support – Automatically remove all metadata – Create snippets with iMessage, Mail, Twitter, WhatsApp, Facebook, Instagram, etc. – Native iOS app – Supports 13 languages – Save screenshots – Supports iPhone 5 & up – Supports English, Dutch, French, German, Chinese, Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, Brazilian, Greek, Russian, Japanese, Korean, Hindi – Supports older versions of the iOS 11 OS If you are looking to send images to multiple users at once, the ez Senderscanner app can be an excellent way to go. This is one of the most popular multi-user email sending apps in the store. It lets you share images, videos and contacts from your iPhone to other devices via WiFi or Wi-Fi networks, without having to connect to your email account. With the ez Senderscanner app, you can also send documents, movies and songs to others without purchasing any content. Ez Senderscanner Features: • Share with multiple recipients • Share videos, images, documents, and contacts • Send images as attachments or to drafts • Create smart image and document templates • View and edit recipient lists • Preview your sent emails • Rate your sent emails • Crop any image • Use the Photo button to share any picture • Sync with any app that supports iCloud

What's New in the AText?

aText is a text abbreviator which can be used as a natural language phrase generator. aText lets you create text phrases from abbreviations. A phrase contains multiple abbreviations and a full-form. Additional features include creating a category and snippets. aText can be used on different devices and applications. aText creates word-based abbreviations. aText can be used in your text-based programs, too. Also, other programs supported are Apple Pages, Safari and Chrome. aText is quite useful when you need to type text in many applications. Using it, you can create phrases automatically. MacScan is a fun, free PDF scanner for macOS. It is best suited for scanning business cards and assorted paper documents, as it is meant for quick scans and efficient searching. The app has powerful features to help you scan, and even offer suggestions on how to edit the image so that you'll end up with the best possible file. However, the app isn't for everyone. It is currently in beta, so it doesn't have a lot of features, and the user interface is not designed for the touchpad. Features: Manual or Automatic Document Scanning: Manual Scanning allows you to scan a document by simply placing the document over the app. Some types of documents might not be scanned. For example, the app can't scan text if it's facing downwards. Automatic Scanning scans multiple documents by default, but you can scan only one document, too. The apps uses as many or as few as the scan settings requires. The NVIDIA Web Driver controls your NVIDIA GeForce GTX and GTX-targeted graphics cards via a web interface accessible through a browser. It's convenient and easy to use. The app empowers you to optimize the drivers, and detects and offers suggestions for graphics-related problems. It also has features for checking hardware problems and finding software solutions for various software issues, as well. Features: Customize What You'll See: Control what NVIDIA Web Driver shows you via a revamped interface, and give your graphics card, games, apps, and software, more attention than ever before. Check Hardware: Make sure your video card, NVIDIA GeForce GTX, and NVIDIA Game Ready Drivers are running smoothly. Track Your Drivers: Locate the NVIDIA Web Driver, which offers reminders of the drivers to download and install. Scan Your Computer: Scan and diagnose hardware problems automatically, or with custom setups. iPad Genius makes it fun and easy to
