Hypermill.An 11-year-old boy was killed when he was struck by a vehicle that failed to yield to his bicycle, according to the Bay Area News Group. The accident occurred at about 12:20 p.m. Wednesday near the intersection of Marshman and Alameda streets in San Francisco's Bayview-Hunters Point neighborhood. The boy was pronounced dead at a local hospital, but his identity and the identity of the driver who fled the scene were not released. The San Francisco Police Department has not identified the boy. A bicycle was found on the scene, but investigators were still trying to determine the mechanism of the collision. (The Daily Caller) Facebook's "Equality" Platform is Threatening Free Speech — Not Equality 'Wild Wild West': Facebook Makes No Special Case for Free Speech It should come as no surprise to conservatives that Facebook's newly-instituted "Equality" section on its website threatens to shut down content in which users advocate for traditional marriage and family. Now, we're learning that the company has been quietly creating an “Equality” section on its Facebook mobile app too. Facebook’s announcement in April that it would create a “Equality” section on its platform was initially met with resistance by many conservatives. Critics charged that Facebook’s “Equality” section is nothing more than censorship, as it will only allow pro-LGBT “equality” content to be distributed. But after a month on Facebook’s “Equality” section, we learned that Facebook’s goal, in large part, is to prevent conservatives from posting content that calls out the dangers of the LGBT agenda.
