May 3, 2018 - The game requires a lot of micromanaging and strategic adjustments made on the fly, adding to its already steep difficulty curve. But . I just finished playing The Division and it was really great. During the first hours, my instincts told me that I should avoid everything that is part of the city, because they attack too much. But I had to step over myself and play as I liked. I always thought the game required a lot of micromanaging and strategic adjustments made on the fly, adding to its already steep difficulty curve.
