Features AutoCAD is a 2D drawing package that runs on Microsoft Windows (and on other operating systems via Windows Terminal Services or Remote Desktop) and supports both 2D and 3D modelling and design. AutoCAD is generally considered to be a feature-rich tool that has a steep learning curve. The following sections present a brief overview of the key features of AutoCAD. Work area AutoCAD uses a hierarchy of windows, tabs and panes. The windows can be displayed as the primary CAD drawing surface or in floating windows which can be moved and resized independently of the main drawing area. Panes, the smaller windows, can be displayed on the main drawing area. They can be used to organize information in a selected view, such as property sheets, options or layers. Tabs display the views that are open in a window. You can drag windows and tabs from one drawing area to another. This was reported earlier, but still interesting, as it's going to be interesting to see what action his team will take as the US is now down two A-list celebrity players with the Axon 2015 Play of the Year runner-up, Ryan Lochte, pulling out of the event over "security reasons." "We decided not to participate because of what happened with Ryan Lochte," Trump said. "We decided that it wasn't going to be appropriate to have the swimmer there. That's their decision, but I do think that Ryan Lochte is a tremendous person. I think he's a very good swimmer. "I know he was in a lot of trouble in the past, and he took it very seriously and he's a fine young man," Trump said. "So I will say this: That was a very poor choice on his part. He should've never done what he did, and he deserves credit for that." Lochte apologized earlier today for his actions while visiting the White House this week, and has already paid a $25,000 fine. Although Lochte claims he was playing along with a prank, "I shouldn't have lied about it," Lochte said. Sportsnet contributor Eric Koreen believes Lochte was probably a bit more than just joking around, and suggested that he's going to face some sort of penalty for his actions. "I don't think it was a prank," Koreen told Dan O'Toole on Sportsnet 590 The FAN. "I think it was just inappropriate and I think they're going to put
