I'm James. I run the website, I make the games. I'm Glyn, I make the music. Kevin is our graphic designer. Ric is our partner in life, love, and business. This is how my family works... This is our new idea. This is how we get it done. We're kind of obsessives. Four people. One dream. We make everything by hand. We're fine artists, designers, and dreamers. We're family men. We're Glyn, James, Kevin, and Ric. And we're making everything bigger. Read Reviews 4 Game Info About This Game "There was a house... inside that house there was a room... and you could go up a lot of stairs, and they opened a door... and it was like a door... And there was a room there... and a bed... and you could spend the night there. And I would spend the night there in that room. And there was a door... but it wasn't a door... that led to the outside. And that door was guarded. And there were bars on the door. And the bars were so thick they were like stone and they hurt the hand that tried to get through them. And I didn't try to get through them, because I was frightened. And you can't see that door from the outside, but you can see it from the inside. And there was a wall....And there was a window there... And a window that was so high you could not see out. And there was a blanket there... And a blanket to cover us. But I know you're there... And I hope you like the room. And the room is cozy.... I went to the room. And it wasn't like a door. It was a hole in the wall. And it was far away from the other doors. And I was afraid to go there. But I went there anyway. I went there. And I liked the hole in the wall. It made me feel safe. And it felt like a door. And there was a door there. And it wasn't a door. There was a keyhole there. And there was a key there. And I put the key in the keyhole, and the key turned. And I kept turning, and the key turned, and the key turned, and the key turned. And the door opened. And there was

Travel back to the Osugata-cho district of the Tojo Village, a hidden private island in Japan. After the events of Red Baron, Japanese dojin artist Suigetsu discovered that his sister, Kokoro, is being used by Hijiri to spread rumors about Red Baron, and was brainwashed to be one of the children. After his sister was rescued, Suigetsu vowed to uncover the conspiracies of Hijiri. This is a re-release of Suigetsu's previous game from 2011, called Nekogata Sensen. In this game, Suigetsu will unlock a new Hijiri costume for Kokoro, a Sexy Bunny costume! Key Features: - Choose from 4 different outfits for Hijiri and Kokoro - Suigetsu will visit various areas of Osugata-Cho, in addition to an alternate area of Hijiri's secret lair. - Suigetsu can unlock new outfits for Hijiri and Kokoro! - Suigetsu can use cards to gain special abilities. - The game includes an original story, featuring several cute girls! - Players can also play through the original Nekogata Senes as well! Story: "You've already seen someone who has made a full recovery, right?" Suigetsu (Keiichi) and Kokoro (Ko) have almost reached their destination. Suigetsu is secretly hoping he wouldn't need to fight anyone when he arrives. Suigetsu and Kokoro: Suigetsu (Keiichi) and Kokoro (Ko) were together the whole day. It was just after they left the restaurant when they saw a weird man running away. "... you see, after he left the hospital he quickly changed his appearance. And he's been working as a pimp in that area." "This man is being controlled by a black material... a foreign power... and he spreads rumors about Nekogata from Osugata-cho," said the man. "Those allegations have appeared in newspapers, TV, the internet and so on..." "There are also some odd rumors floating around the Nekogata, but those have been handed down through the generations and are considered to be important for the further growth of the Nekogata. Thus, the newspapers and c9d1549cdd

----- The game play is very similar to Spelunky, but you have a very free hand. You are given a day to build your village, and also the night to defend it, giving you a total of 5 days to build your village and your defense. The villagers do the following :- - Collect wood from the forests, mountains, and rivers - Mine stone from the mountains - Burn the trees and send the ashes to the villages for a return - Build a well (or an oil barrel if you prefer) to get a continuous supply of water - Using a loom, weave cloth for materials. - Build a furnace for iron and diamonds - Buy weapons from the armor store - Build houses, defend the village, grow food, and harvest crops. - Help the villagers, when they are sick or have been hurt. - Walk on the world map to find resources, defend your territory and to get new villagers. - You can also order the villagers to attack a town, or defend their village. - You start with 6 villagers, and can get new villagers from villagers who walk too far away. Also you can build a farm, where you can breed new villagers. The more villagers you have, the more resources you can gather. - An older version of the game, "The Block Box" allows you to build over an existing village, but there is no defense or attack force. All resources are obtained by crafting and selling them (except for the blocks). This game is a simulation of the villages and civilizations of the pre-historic world. It was invented by Fabrice Sergent, the french programmer. Download this game at - To be able to download a game from indiedb, you need to verify your email. Once the download is finished, the game will be placed into the "Downloads" section of your playing games screen. Look what I got!" "Neonosis, the winter sale has begun." "Three items in one box, and all for only one price." "Finally, I've found the right mama." "I know someone who knows something." "I know!" "All right, great job, you two." "You're gonna need to edit out the CGI shots." "Well, we don't have money to pay people." "Plus, it was supposed to be a surprise." "Um, something
