Villa Vieras The Villas de Vieras (English: Villas of Four), located in Tolima, Colombia is an example of colonial architecture of the 16th century, the beauty and decoration of which has been conserved and built as a residence for the family of Atanasio Giraldo (Giraldo Hotel, Tolima). History The construction of this building started in 1615 with the participation of father Hernando Giraldo y Giraldo, merchant, alcalde of the comarca of Soatá and alderman of Tolima. The construction was carried out and the project finished by the architect Don Juan Orellana y Pardo. The construction was inspired to the town of Ricaurte of Jalisco, Mexico, and the architecture of Andalusia in Spain. The construction of the building was also the beginning of the construction of Giraldo in Tolima, which had the style of Andalusian, and for which he has studied the archives of alcaldes and merchants. Today, this building houses the Giraldo Hotel, which is famous for its design and its good location in the Miraflores district, in the center of the city. Description The building was built to host the Marquis of Villaviciosa, Ana María Giraldo, wife of the founder of the Giraldo Hotel, Atanasio Giraldo. He tells Kyle that he is going home, leaving Kyle's apartment and walks home. Once he gets to his apartment, he gets ready for bed and watches a rerun episode of Knight Rider. We see his room where he has a big teddy bear in it and a couple of trophies. He is also seen wearing his pajama pants which are covered with an outfit from his closet. He goes into his room and sits on his bed and starts to cry. LaBoy is a great kid, but a little screwed up. Yes, Geoff Busbey is Kyle's father. And he definitely wasn't at Kyle's apartment waiting for Kyle. He was at his new apartment, which is not in the same apartment complex as Kyle's. The last time we saw LaBoy, he was chased away by Kyle's Uncle Nick. We last saw LaBoy chasing somebody outside, and this time, LaBoy is running for his life from his father. LaBoy tells Kyle's father that he "hates him and everything about him," and he is running from his father. I think Kyle's mother is at the airport with LaBoy, but we don't see her. Jeremy is on the phone with his friend, Jason, and tells Jason that Kyle needs an X-ray and surgery on his knee. He says that Kyle "needs an operation" and says that Kyle needs to be taken to the hospital right away. Jeremy tells Jason that Kyle needs an X-ray and surgery. Jason tells Jeremy that it is not his fault that Kyle is hurt. Jeremy replies "I'm not saying it's your fault. I'm not even saying it's his fault. The problem is he's my son and my responsibility." La
