"I'm so sorry. I'm really sorry, I shouldn't have touched you." A young servant of the Elden, standing in the cold and dark corner of her lord's dark mansion, trembling. "I... I'm sorry," she whispered, clutching her pale blue skirt with blood-stained hands. "But... but... that was such a hot night," she stammered. "You would never have believed the way it was on that night, so hot!" She was horrified that she could remember every detail. The twisted faces, the bulging bodies, the sticky grope of flesh. A cold, hard voice resonated in her head as she confessed to her sins, and told herself not to see her demons again. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm so sorry, I'm sorry!" And yet, she was so cold. "I'm sorry for everything. You don't have to blame yourself. It's nothing to do with you." It may not have been her fault, but her sin, which had caused her to have to touch the girl. "But... I think I've been cursed." She was the first, and the girl was the second. They would be the only two who would bear their sins. But that meant that she too would have to sin without end until the Elden Ring of peace was saved. - "Ah...! H-help!" Koryu, who had been tied to a pole with her hands behind her back, groaned. She was filled with agony as she cried out in pain, but the blood-red goblin gangster had freed her. "And now... you're gonna go to hell." They had dragged Koryu through the dark, cold forest for two days, and she had suffered every minute of the torturous treatment. As she moaned, her hands were not spared. "The Elden Ring... this isn't going to save you. You're going to hell!" Her bloody hands were tied again, and this time, she was too weak bff6bb2d33
