Ukraine will soon respond to a peace proposal from Russia to hold consultations to settle the Ukrainian-Russian conflict, the Ukrainian Foreign Ministry said in a statement on its website. "The Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine, Pavlo Klimkin, has said that the Security Service of Ukraine (SBU) had issued an order to open negotiations with representatives of the Russian Federation on the settlement of the conflict with the latter," the Foreign Ministry said. "Following a statement by the Russian Foreign Ministry of Ukraine has responded: "As a result of cooperation with the Security Service of Ukraine had issued an order to open negotiations on the potential settlement of the conflict with the representatives of the Russian Federation on the basis of the 1994 Budapest Memorandum," it added. The statement went on to say that a working group had been set up in Kyiv to monitor the situation and that Ukraine had a number of such groups in the country's regions. The United States called on the Russian military to cease hostilities against Ukraine, branding Russia's actions as "disproportionate force." "We condemn the Russian attacks and other provocations
