With the global economy facing a serious slowdown and with the UK about to leave the EU, business and government joined forces to discuss how to tackle the challenges facing the UK and how they can join forces to make the UK economy work. The event, attended by hundreds of key stakeholders, aimed to provide useful advice for business owners and stakeholders in a time of change. There was a packed programme of high-level presentations from key Government figures and representatives from the major EU institutions. There was also a number of technical sessions on topics such as Government procurement and funding, how to run a business in the UK, UK access to the EU Single Market, Brexit and the UK's exit from the EU. A highly-regarded panel chaired by Business Minister Anna Soubry discussed the question 'What business can do to help rebuild the UK economy'. The panel featured the Minister and senior business and government figures, including: Mark Hayward, Minister of State for Small Business at the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills David Brown, Deputy Prime Minister, Business Minister and Lord President of the Council Sir Vince Cable, Business Secretary Myra Sherlock, Acting Director-General, CBI Richard Lambert, Director of Policy, CBI In her opening presentation, Anna Soubry said: "This country is embarking on a difficult period. It is time to join forces to take the right decisions for business and the public sector. We need to make best use of the opportunities available to us now and to move swiftly towards the future. "The UK needs a strong industrial base, a thriving and diverse economy and a

I used to use a RT56 sub and a D7134, and it was working well. I've upgraded to a new piece of equipment which also works great. I have configured a new mp3 collection on the desktop computer. I find that I am unable to make the system work. For some reason the transfer doesn't go through on the wife, but seems to work alright on the computer. See the attached video for some examples (I've tried over and over and I find this to be the best). Any help would be appreciated. A: The computer probably has a USB 3.0 connection and SONOS has a USB 2.0 connection, so the transfer is a bit slower. But at the very least the transfer is skipped, right?
