KPKCK is a Malayalam language radio station based at Cochin, Kerala, owned by the Kerala State Government. The focus is to provide an opportunity to communicate the different views, perceptions, opinions of people across the world. [3] KPKCK is a platform where people are free to express their views on any issue, however controversial that may be. Apart from this a platform to listen to more than hundred radio stations from India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and other countries. The first Malayalam novel was the Vyakaranam in 1865 by S. K. Pottekkatt. [22] The first Malayalam dictionary was the Malayalam-English Dictionary by P.V. Sarma and P.V. Menon. [23] [24] The University of Kerala was established in 1956. [25] [26] The Kerala Government first allotted funds for university education, covering college education only in 1955. [25] The University of Calicut was established in 1981, the Mangalore University in 1981, and the University of Madras in 1972. [27] Later on, the University of Kerala admitted women for Bachelor's and Master's courses in 1963 and 1969 respectively, for the first time in India. [28] [29] In 1967, the Kerala Government appointed high-level officers to oversee the development of higher education in the state. [25] The high-level committee was set up under the chairmanship of the then Minister of Education Kerala, V. Ramamurthi. [25] The report of the committee, submitted in 1968 recommended the setting up of a University at Thiruvanthapuram. [25] The recommendations were accepted and the University of Kerala was inaugurated on 12 August 1969 by the then Governor of Kerala, Sir Edmund Hooper. [25] The first Malayalam-medium B.Ed. course commenced in the same year. [25]

Nadan Pattukal In Malayalam Free 76

nadan pattukal is also referred to as Kavuvu Nadanpattukal in Malayalam and as Naadan Pattukal in Tamil, a word which means 'The Path' in Tamil. Kodavas, another tribe living in north Kerala, use the word Kavuvu to refer to a locally made drum which they call Kavuvu Pattukal. It is a well known fact that Nadan Pattukal is originated from the Kodavas or the Kasiswara tribe living in north Kerala. On the very first day of the Pattukal season, the people are requested to visit the temple to sing the songs and chant the holy hymns written by the great poets of the Kerala. This is the first ritual in the art of Nadan Pattukal. As the years passed by, the rituals became elaborate and the songs too became more elaborate. Many words were written in the Malayalam language and also the Malayalam language was used to write the songs. Over the years, it became a tradition for the people to sing the songs for their celebrations like Deepavali, Onam or Vishu etc. With the invention of the modern music instruments like accordion, cajun, violin, guitar and the carrom, Nadan Pattukal songs were sung in the new music form and the melodies were written in the Malayalam language. The lyrics were a combination of Malayalam words and the combination of the classical music. Songs like Rahasya thekku thedum, Amma, Aadyum padyathunnilla, Aadaathe (Aku thedum) are some of the most popular songs in the Nadan Pattukal. It is considered as a kind of classical music because of its use of the Malayalam language. The Malayalam Language Commission was formed in 1970. In December 1983, it ordered the Malayalam script to be updated. This brought about a shift in script and font from Malayalam. The Commission has also made necessary corrections to texts such as Malayalam
