Hangover Helper Pro is your only true friend when you wake up somewhere unknown, with a hangover, after attending a social event involving consumption of alcoholic beverages. The easy and headache friendly panorama-layout starts out by letting you select the city from a drop-down list, country, timezone, a date range, or simply enter a city name to search from a great city database. Enter the details of your hangover and Hangover Helper Pro will intelligently analyze the data and give you the most appropriate cure for your condition. The user interface is very intuitive and does not need a steep learning curve. You can set the options you want to change and press a few buttons.
